Curriculum Vitae

Harald Tauber started his musical training in Wiener Neustadt/Austria, where he studied singing pedagogics after finishing his A-levels. Afterwards, he completed a further study in the field of "musical, operetta and chanson" with honour at the Vienna conservatory. During his education, he already played some leading roles in THE ROCKY HORROR SHOW, JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR and BASTIEN AND BASTIENNE.

Right after graduating, he was engaged by the Vereinigte Bühnen Vienna for the world premiere of DANCE OF THE VAMPIRES, where he was also could be seen in MOZART! and JEKYLL & HYDE later on. Further engagements in Austria and abroad followed, including the German premiere of DRACULA in Tecklenburg and FALCO MEETS AMADEUS at the Wörtherseefestspiele in Klagenfurt. Since the German premiere of WE WILL ROCK YOU, where he got the chance to work with the founders of the rockband Queen, Brian May and Roger Taylor, Cologne has become his permanent residence. In 2008, he created the role of Ofir at the world premiere of TUTANCHAMUN as well as the role of Koloman Moser at the world premiere of GUSTAV KLIMT 2009 in Gutenstein and is also featured on both Original Cast records. In 2009 and 2010, he toured Germany as Soloist and Resident Director for MUSICAL FIEBER.

Apart from his job as a musical actor, he organized several galas in favour of the Austrian Cancer Aid, produced the CDs "Freiheit" and "Traumwelt" and worked as a vocal coach. In 2006, he founded together with his colleagues Martin Berger and Matthias Simoner the band a<sup>3</sup>.
